

Sayonara

*Don't expect me to die
In this pond above my head
Where tears cry, cry and cry
And all pain exits like I'm dead
—How heavenly absurd
Blossoms are sworn in as flora
Controlled by old movie horror
As the samurai screams sayonara, sayonara
In garbled pleas and violent seas
I surrender from upon these knees
As the samurai screams sayonara, sayonara
Roundup all the random savages
Collect their hate, rage and jeers
Heal me in pure essential oil
Then frighten off worst fears
—What the hell have I become!
Blossoms are sworn in as flora
Controlled by old movie horror
As the samurai screams sayonara, sayonara
In garbled pleas and violent seas
I surrender from upon these knees
As the samurai screams sayonara, sayonara
—Is this bonjour or sayonara?
Blossoms are sworn in as flora
Controlled by old movie horror
As the samurai screams sayonara, sayonara
In garbled pleas and violent seas
I surrender from upon these knees
As the samurai screams sayonara, sayonara*
