

"Freed"

Music by John Pagano

Lyrics by Alexander

Our love was silent, ancient and bold
The warm breeze of youth eternally froze
I never knew a smile wrapped around my heart
And hope had a name ... and forever a start

Somewhere in our shattered dreams, black turned to white
And God ended lonely's reign to watch a dove take flight
When sorrow asked for my life, your touch laid him to rest
Odds that once stood tall now bowed before you zest

I was freed from the chains of regret
I was freed the moment we met
Freed, endless through time
Freed in me

Freed loved me to give all I can
Freed loved me beyond mortal man
Freed to trust in the plan
Freed to live as IAM

Yes I'm freed from boy to a man
I'm so freed, joy told us we can
Freed... faith born from shame
IAM FREED
IAM FREED

Now fate is small, small in our hands
True love's so quiet, quite in command
I know prayers go unspoken in their plea
But please be freed forever ... forever with me
